

Elevation Pictures' Films Receive Four Academy Awards Including History Making FLEE

Toronto, ON - February 8, 2022 - Elevation is thrilled to announce that Jonas Poher Rasmussen's film, Flee, makes Academy Award history for being the first film to receive Best Animated, Documentary & International Feature nominations. Kristen Stewart receives her first Academy Award Nomination for Best Actress for her stunning portrayal of Princess Diana in Spencer.

Flee is expanding across Canada this Friday and Spencer is now playing in select theatres and is available to rent or own on all digital platforms.

Elevation Pictures' past Academy Award wins include Best Adapted Screenplay in 2015 for The Imitation Game, and Best Actress in 2016 for Brie Larson, Room. Best Picture, Best Supporting Actor, Mahershala Ali, and Best Adapted Screenplay for Moonlight; Hacksaw Ridge landed two for Film Editing and Sound Mixing; and The Salesman took home Best Foreign Language Film in 2017. Best Actor for Anthony Hopkins, The Father, Best Supporting Actress for Yuh-Jung Youn, Minari; Adapted Screenplay for Florian Zellar and Christopher Hampton, The Father in 2018.

Elevation Pictures upcoming titles include Everything Everywhere All At Once starring Michelle Yeoh, Golda starring Hellen Mirren, and Clement Virgo's Canadian feature, Brother.

For More Information:

Website: www.elevationpictures.com

Twitter: @Elevation_Pics

Facebook: Elevation Pictures

Instagram: @Elevation_Pics